

DRIVER'S LICENSE CRIMES

If you have been charged with driving with a suspended driver's license or no valid driver's license, you should immediately consult an attorney. Below, you will find the elements that the state must prove in order to convict a person with the crimes of driving while license suspended or no valid driver's license.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED, REVOKED OR CANCELED WITH KNOWLEDGE

§ 322.34(2), Fla. Stat.

To prove the crime of Driving While License is Suspended, Revoked, or Canceled, the State must prove the following three elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. Defendant drove a motor vehicle upon a highway in this state.
2. At the time, his or her license was suspended, revoked, or canceled.
3. At the time defendant drove a motor vehicle upon a highway in this state, defendant knew that his/her license or driving privilege was suspended, revoked or canceled.

Whether the defendant knew of the suspension, revocation, or cancellation is a question to be determined by the jury from the evidence.

If you have been charged with this crime, contact our office to schedule your free confidential consultation.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE REVOKED AS A HABITUAL TRAFFIC OFFENDER

§322.34(5), Fla. Stat.

To prove the crime of Driving While License Revoked as a Habitual Traffic Offender, the State must prove the following two elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. Defendant drove a motor vehicle upon a highway in this state.
2. At the time, defendant's license was revoked as a habitual traffic offender.

As you can imagine, this charge is a felony and the penalty can be quite severe. If you have been charged with this crime, please contact our office to schedule your free, confidential consultation.

NO VALID DRIVER'S LICENSE

§ 322.03, Fla. Stat.

To prove the crime of No Valid Driver's License, the State must prove the following two elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. Defendant drove a motor vehicle upon a highway in this state.
2. At the time, [he] [she] did not have a valid driver's license recognized by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles of the State of Florida.

If you have been charged with this crime, contact our office to schedule your free confidential consultation.

1.